

The Chaplet of the Divine Mercy

The pale ray stands for the Water which makes souls righteous. The red ray stands for the Blood which is the life of souls.

This Novena can be made at any time, but it can be made at the beginning of Good Friday in preparation for the Feast of His Mercy, which should be celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter.

On rosary beads First say one:

'Our Father'...., 'Hail Mary'...and 'the Creed'...

Then on Our Father beads say:

'Eternal Father, I offer You the Body and the Blood, Soul and Divinity of Your dearly beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world.'

On the Hail Mary beads say:

'For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world.'

In conclusion say three times:

'Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal One, have mercy on us and on the whole world.'

'O Blood and Water, which gushed forth from the Heart of Jesus as a fount of mercy for us, I trust in You!'

Whoever will recite the novena will receive great mercy at the hour of death.

The Chaplet of Divine Mercy is one of the most powerful prayers we could possibly pray. Jesus told Sr. Fausitna:

Even if there were a sinner most hardened, if he were to recite this chaplet only once, he would receive grace from My infinite mercy.

Jesus Himself disclosed the following intentions to pray for on each day of the Novena.

The Chaplet of Divine Mercy should be offered each day for the day's intentions.

DAY 1 (Good Friday) - All mankind, especially sinners

DAY 2 (Holy Saturday) - The souls of priests and religious

DAY 3 (Easter Sunday) - All devout and faithful souls

DAY 4 (Easter Monday) - Those who do not believe in Jesus & those who do not know Him

DAY 5 (Easter Tuesday) - The souls of separated brethren

DAY 6 (Easter Wednesday) - The meek and humble souls and the souls of children

DAY 7 (Easter Thursday) - The souls who especially venerate and glorify Jesus' mercy

DAY 8 (Easter Friday) - The souls who are detained in purgatory;

DAY 9 (Easter Saturday) - The souls who have become lukewarm.

The Divine Mercy Chaplet's Power

Aside from the Mass and the Rosary, the Chaplet of Divine Mercy is the most powerful prayer we have. In praying the Divine Mercy Chaplet, we offer the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus, which unites our intentions to the sacrifice of the Mass. In other words, the Divine Mercy Chaplet is like an act of Spiritual Communion. Through this chaplet, we obtain forgiveness and intercede for the salvation of souls. Jesus grants plentiful graces to those who pray the chaplet, and it appeases the wrath of God. When someone prays the Divine Mercy Chaplet for a dying person, especially a dying sinner, that person's soul will find peace, and their hour of death will be a happy one. Jesus promises that, "No soul that has called upon my mercy has been disappointed or brought to shame." Divine Mercy reminds us that it's never too late to return to the Lord with open arms. When circumstances seem hopeless for a soul, praying the Divine Mercy Chaplet can make an eternity of difference. Especially at the time of death, praying this chaplet for someone will envelop their soul in the blood and water that flowed from Jesus' side. The wrath of God will subside and His mercy will shine on that soul.
